CEASE-FIRE IDLE SPECULATION: EISENHOWER

Senate Passes Bill for Full GI Education Aid

Action by Voice Vote; Measure Goes to White House

The Senate passed and sent to the White House today a bill to let some 1,400,000 service men and women accumulate full GI educational benefits.

The Senate action was by voice vote. The House passed the measure unanimously last month. It will cost an estimated 390 million dollars in the next 10 years.

President Eisenhower had terminated Korean War veterans' benefits effective Jan. 31. His proclamation would have halted further accumulation of education benefits by persons who entered the service before the cutoff date.

The measure now awaiting the President's signature rectifies that. It will allow those who joined up before Jan. 31 to keep on accumulating educational rights at the rate of 1 1/2 days for every day in service. The maximum is 36 months—four college years.

Other congressional news:

"Adequate defense." Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson assured the Senate Armed Services Committee that the administration's planned reduction of military manpower will leave the nation with "adequate defense." He was supported by Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. However, Committee Chairman Richard B. Russell said the Formosa crisis and the change in Russian leaders demand a "close re-evaluation" of cutbacks in U. S. military manpower.

Treaty: The Senate Foreign Relations Committee urged the Senate to give quick approval to the Formosa defense treaty. The committee said the pact is needed to deter the Chinese Reds from "reckless attempts" to capture the island.

Boom: Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole asked Congress for emergency authority to insure an additional 1.2 billion dollars in housing mortgages. Otherwise, he said, the housing boom will begin to slack off within five weeks.

Security probe: The Senate Rules Committee voted $125,000 for an investigation of the administration's personnel security program. Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.), who blocked funds for the investigation two weeks ago, was out of town when today's action was taken.

Reserves: Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said that the nation's present military reserves are not prepared for combat.

The Army chief of staff told a House Armed Services Subcommittee that creation of a stronger, better-trained reserve is a matter of "utmost urgency." He pleaded for adoption of the administration's new reserve program which is based on a modified form of Universal Military Training.

The organization's next meeting will be held March 15 at 7:30 p. m. The place of the meeting will be announced later.

B36 Crashes, 18 Airmen Scamper to Safety; 2 Killed

PORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Eighteen airmen scampered to safety Tuesday night in the split second between the time a giant B36 crashed and then disintegrated in a burst of flames. Two crewmen died in the explosion.

The superbomber gave no indication that it was in trouble when it approached the Carswell Air Force Base runway. It touched down just short of the main runway, skidded 3,600 feet and stopped in front of hangars near the flight line. Suddenly it exploded.

Crewmen who survived dashed from the plane as it went up in flames. One received serious burns and three others received fractured bones.

The two who were killed were identified as S. Sgt. Gerry Nichols of Malvern, Ark., and Airmen 2 C. Dean D. Granquist of Ogden, Utah.

Proposal to Hike HTHS Tax Rate Loses by 5 Votes

Second Time in Two Months Plan Rejected

A proposal to increase the tax rate limit for the Harrisburg Township high school district failed yesterday at the polls by a margin of five votes.

It was the second time in a few days over two months that voters turned down the proposal.

Yesterday's vote was announced as 1,118 for and 1,123 against raising the limit from 50 cents to 71 cents on each $100 valuation, as twice as many voters went to the polls as the first time.

On Dec. 4 the proposition was

FACTS ON RATE BOOST REJECTED BY VOTERS

Various stories were circulated regarding the proposed tax rate increase rejected by voters of the Harrisburg High school district, Tuesday.

For the record, here is the situation:

The present rate for educational purposes is 50 cents per $100 assessed valuation. An increase up to 71 cents was asked, with the understanding only the amount required to keep the school out of debt would be levied.

If the increase had been approved and the maximum amount levied, the increase would be $2.10 for each $1,000 assessed valuation.

A taxpayer with property assessed at $3,000 would have paid an additional $6.30.

brought up and lost by a vote of 638 against to 507 in favor of the increase.

Yesterday's balloting, held at the city hall from 12 noon until 7 p. m., was spirited, as 2,287 voters of the district cast their sentiments. The election judges said that 45 of the ballots cast were spoiled.

Students Join Campaign

A number of high school students joined in the campaign yesterday, some driving cars and some carrying banners uptown.

Some of the banners read: "Cost of Education Has Increased. We Need Your Help. Vote Yes." "You Can't Buy Education Cheap. Vote Yes." "We Love Our Gym. But It Won't Do Any Good If It Is Dim. Vote Yes." "Vote For Education. Vote Yes."

But the majority of the voters voted No.

At first it was believed by interested persons that the proposition yesterday had carried by a vote of 1,132 in favor to 1,101 against, but a recheck of the totals showed that this was in error, that the actual count was 1,123 against and 1,118 in favor of the hike.

Planned Slight Increase

The HTHS board of education had announced that an increase in the rate limit was needed to maintain the educational standards at the school. Although the limit would have been increased by 21 cents, the board had stated it had planned to put in a five-cent hike.

The board pointed out previously that the local rate is one of the lowest in the state and that the salaries of the teachers are not up to average.

In order to operate without an increase, it had been said, either the school would have to cut down on some of the advantages offered or operate in debt.

John B. Lee, Well Known Banker, Dies

Was Vice President, Director of Harrisburg Nat'l Bank

John B. Lee, Harrisburg banker and former county officer, educator and mining official, died early today at Welborn Memorial hospital in Evansville.

Mr. Lee, vice president and director of the Harrisburg National bank, died at 12:20 a. m. following surgery performed there last Friday because of a stomach condition. He previously had undergone surgery at Gulfport, Miss., where he was stricken while he and Mrs. Lee were vacationing.

His body was brought to the Gaskins funeral home, where it will lie in state. The funeral service will be at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. John P. Emig, pastor, conducting the service. Burial will be in Sunset Lawn cemetery. A request of Mr. Lee had been that no flowers be sent when he died.

High School Graduate in 1896

Mr. Lee and his wife, Dollie, had resided at 323 West Poplar street in Harrisburg for many years. They have two sons, Homer Lee, Carmi auto dealer, and Atty. George B. Lee of Harrisburg. Mr. Lee also leaves a brother, Harry Lee, and a sister, Mrs. Thenia Parker, both of Harrisburg, and four grandchildren.

Mr. Lee, 77 years old, was born at Mitchellville and went to elementary school there. He was one of the early graduates of the Harrisburg high school, being in the class of 1896, when the school was part of the city schools and situated on East Church street.

Following his graduation he attended Centre college in Kentucky for one year, then returned to Harrisburg to serve as principal of the high school section of the city schools from September until Dec. 21, 1898.

Youngest Circuit Clerk

He resigned at that time because of the death of his father, Dr. William Homer Lee, who was circuit clerk. He succeeded his father in that office when he reached his 21st birthday, the youngest circuit clerk in county history, and served the remaining two years of the term.

After his term of office ended, Mr. Lee became cashier of the City National bank on the south side of the square, resigning after four years to become a partner in the Diamond Coal Co., which sank the mine that later became O'Gara No. 1. This mine went into production in 1905.

Later Mr. Lee returned to banking, becoming an officer in the Saline Trust and Savings bank when it was organized. This bank later consolidated with the Harrisburg State Savings bank into the First Trust and Savings bank and became known as the Harrisburg National bank, the name it still holds.

In 1919 he became a bank examiner, serving four years, but returned to the banking business here.

Mr. Lee was a school board member for a dozen years, serving on the HTHS board of education from 1907 to 1919.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church, in which he served as an elder at one time. He wore the 50-year membership pin of the Masonic lodge, being a member of Harrisburg lodge and of the Mississippi Valley Consistory (32nd Degree Mason). He held a life membership in Harrisburg Elks Lodge 1058.

BANKS WILL CLOSE EARLY FRIDAY FOR LEE FUNERAL

The Harrisburg National and the First National banks of Harrisburg will close early Friday—at 1 p. m., out of respect to John B. Lee, and that all employees of both institutions may attend the funeral of the Harrisburg banker at 2:30 p. m.

Hollingsworth who passed away Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Celia Danby, RFD 1, Harrisburg, will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the North America Baptist church. Mrs. Hollingsworth had been ill for the past two years.

Chain Stores Across Nation Cut Coffee Prices

CHICAGO (AP) — Chain stores across the nation cut coffee prices as much as 16 cents a pound today and housewives hoped a price war was brewing.

The slashes dropped coffee prices to their lowest levels in two years in the big supermarkets. Coffee experts said more wholesale price cuts may be in the works.

So far, the cheaper coffee was restricted to food chain brands. National coffee brands which are not processed by the chains had not yet announced whether their prices will go down.

$1.50 Last August

Only last August, a tight Brazilian coffee market sent prices zooming up to $1.50 a pound. There have been price drops since then, but the big break followed a Brazilian currency reform and heightened competition from Mexico and other South American countries.

Prices began to slide in New York early this week and spread from coast to coast today as the big chains posted new price tags.

The A & P Food Stores, the biggest chain in the nation, ordered a cut of 12 cents a pound, bringing the price down 40 cents from last August's peak and pegging them at the 1953 level.

Under the new price schedules, A & P coffee sold for from 79 to 89 cents a pound.

The second biggest chain, Safeway Stores, topped A & P's cut by dropping prices as much as 16 cents a pound.

Price War Looms

The National Tea chain sent its prices down as much as 14 cents. The Kroger chain ordered prices lowered 10 to 12 cents a pound, while 12 cents a pound was the average cut at the Jewel Tea Stores.

Not all parts of the country were getting the same break from the coffee salesmen. The New York area appeared to be having the best luck and there were already signs of a price war.

The Grand Union Company, with 300 markets in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Vermont, and Massachusetts, started the price cutting with a 10-cent drop Monday.

Right Water Laws, Conservation Can Aid Area, IAA Speaker Says

Addresses Farm Leaders Meeting Here at City Hall

"Dry years in southern Illinois have pointed up the need for study of our water supply problem, our existing laws, and possible changes in water legislation in Illinois. In my opinion, the right water laws and water conservation measures can help southern Illinois counties gain the place they deserve in farm prosperity."

Those were among statements on state legislative problems made by Cullen Sweet, assistant director of organization for the Illinois Agricultural association, during a meeting of farm leaders here Tuesday at the city hall.

The meeting was one of 15 district sessions being held over the state by the IAA, the statewide Farm Bureau organization.

Purpose of the meetings, according to Alfred Rister, Omaha farmer who is the IAA director for the 24th district, is to give information materials to county Farm Bureau leaders who have volunteered to help carry out the state organization's Policy Execution program.

Rister explained that the farmers' program is aimed at turning IAA and American Farm Bureau Federation resolutions into legislative action. The resolutions, he said, were drawn up at the annual meetings of the state and national organizations.

He pointed out that the men and women present, and their neighbors, helped write the resolutions through the Farm Bureau's policy development program.

Lanterman, member of the National Advisory committee. Introduction of guests will be by Homer Curtiss, Farm Credit director.

S. Brock, president of Production Credit Corporation; "What Farmer Ownership Means to Me," by Lloyd Burlingham, member; "Place of PCA's in Illinois Families of Cooperatives," by Otto Streffey, president Illinois Agricultural Association, and an address by R. SEC Approves Dixon-Yates Project, 4-1

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission today approved the first phase of financial plans for construction of the controversial Dixon-Yates power project.

The vote was 4-1. Democrat Paul R. Rowen disagreed with the other four members of the commission.

The commission's action gives the two Dixon-Yates sponsoring companies permission to invest 5 1/2 million dollars of capital in the proposed 107-million-dollar plant at West Memphis, Ark.

The SEC's ruling may be appealed to the federal courts, but opposition lawyers had no immediate comment on their plans.

Democrats have been trying in various ways to block the contract. They adopted a new tack today, suggesting that it be assigned to some other agency so the Atomic Energy Commission can concentrate on atomic matters. There was some Republican support for this idea.

Marshal Zhukov Named Soviet Defense Chief

MOSCOW (AP) — Russia today named Marshal Gregori K. Zhukov, the conqueror of Berlin, its defense minister in a new regime pledged to greater heavy industrial and arms production.

The appointment completed the sweeping changes which began Tuesday with the sudden resignation of Premier Georgi Malenkov and "election" of Marshal Nikolai Bulganin as his successor.

Malenkov, whose program of consumer goods production was renounced by Bulganin today in his first speech as premier, was relegated to the post of minister of electrical energy, with the additional title of vice premier.

The changes were approved by the concluding session of the Supreme Soviet parliament which also:

1. Heard Bulganin pledge Russia's support to Red China in its Formosa dispute with the United States.

2. Heard Bulganin promise that he will follow the new line laid down by Communist Party First Secretary, Nikita Khrushchev, which gives top priority to heavy industrial production.

3. Ratified the Jan. 25 decree ending the state of war with Germany.

Approves Molotov Report

4. Unanimously approved Tuesday's bristling foreign policy report of Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in which he said the United States is lagging behind Russia in H-bomb development.

5. Approved a resolution inviting all the parliaments of the world to exchange delegations in order to find ways to preserve global peace.

6. Heard Bulganin announce a new five-year plan—Russia's sixth—which will start later this year and well ahead of schedule.

Bulganin's pledge to support the economic policy laid down late last month by Khrushchev emphasized the latter's growing power in the Soviet hierarchy. Many Western observers believe he is emerging as the most powerful man in the Soviet Union, with powers approaching those exercised by the late Premier Josef Stalin.

Rev. Ernest Ammon Discusses Egyptian Council Boy Scout Program at Kiwanis

The program of the Egyptian Boy Scout Council for this year was outlined to members of the Kiwanis club last night at the Masonic temple by Rev. Ernest Ammon, pastor of the Carrier Mills First Baptist church, and a Council leader on the public relations staff.

Four goals for the Council, listed by Rev. Ammon, are:

1.—To increase Boy Scout troops. He stated there are about 2,000 Scouts in the Council at the present time, but there should be 6,000 or 7,000. He expressed the hope the camping program will help increase the interest of the boys in this area.

2.—Community activity in which the Scouts can participate in uniform whereby they will feel they are part of the community program.

3.—Fully trained leaders to provide a full scouting program for the boys. The Council plans to have leadership schools throughout the year.

4.—Financial drive for $90,000 to begin in March or April. This will provide money to complete the camp at Little Grassy lake and to enable each district to have a full time Boy Scout executive.

This program, Rev. Ammon stated, will fulfill the Council theme of "Time is Running Out—Young People of Today Will be Leaders of Tomorrow."

He also explained how each dollar was spent in the Egyptian Council to provide a full scouting program.

Out of each dollar advancement of the Scouts through all the activities takes nine cents; camping and outings which are three-fourths of the scouting program, takes 27 cents; health and safety, four cents; leadership training 21 cents; organization and extension, 20 cents; public relations, 16 cents; miscellaneous, two cents.

President Dan Davis reminded the members that the Feb. 22 meeting will be a ladies' night affair with the Saline County Soil Conservation district, which will have its annual meeting. The meeting that evening will begin at 6:30 p. m.

Guests last night were Julian Valette, Edwardsville, and B. L. Beyers, Evansville, both visiting Kiwanians.

Says Downing Of Bomber No Serious Incident

President Blames Bellicose Attitude Of Red Chinese

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today the bellicose attitude of the Red Chinese makes it idle to speculate about a possible Formosan ceasefire.

However, he said the evacuation of the Chinese Nationalist Tachen Islands is proceeding without real interference by the Communists. And barring any incident, he said, it would be completed very soon.

He did not regard the shooting down of an American carrier attack bomber by Red Chinese anti-aircraft as a serious incident because the plane had wandered off course and the crew was not harmed.

The plane was shot down Tuesday night while covering the evacuation of the island. A pilot and two crew members were aboard. They suffered only slight lacerations.

Mr. Eisenhower discussed at his news conference the situation in Formosa only in brief generalities.

No Real Interference

He was asked about the possibility of a ceasefire being worked out between the Red Chinese and the Nationalists. He replied that since the Communists had declined in such a bellicose manner to discuss a ceasefire with the United Nations, he thought it would be idle to speculate on that possibility.

Mr. Eisenhower said he had heard of no real interference with the evacuation. It looks to him like the operation will continue under similar circumstances, he said.

The plane which was shot down by Red gunfire was a single-engine, propeller-driven AD Skyraider. It crashed into the East China Sea just a few miles north of the Formosa Straits.

The pilot and two crewmen were rescued by two Chinese Nationalist ships—a patrol craft and a minesweeper—and later were transferred to the U. S. Destroyer Isbell.

The U. S. 7th Fleet reported that a navigation miscalculation brought their plane too close to Red anti-aircraft positions.

Identify Pilot, Crewmen

They suffered only slight lacerations, the Navy said.

The pilot was identified as Lt. (j.g.) W. J. Oheren, 32, husband of Mrs. Betty Lou Oheren, Coronado, Calif.

The crewmen were identified as Electronics Technician A. J. Chelowski, 37, husband of Mrs. Josephine M. Chelowski, Imperial Beach, Calif., and Aviation Machinist Mate 1C R. E. Drennen, 31, husband of Mrs. Corene S. Drennen, San Diego, Calif.

The pilot reported he flew for about eight minutes after being hit before his plane's engine stopped. He said that due to low visibility he could not tell the source of the anti-aircraft fire. He believed from the spacing of the shells that they were 20 millimeter.

Death Takes Wm. H. Hubbard

He had been in poor health for some time and had been in the hospital for 11 days.

Mr. Hubbard was born near Crossville in White county Feb. 4, 1875, the son of Regdon and Rachel Hubbard.

Mr. Hubbard was a member of the Primitive Baptist church at Crossville.

The WASHINGTON
MERRY-GO-ROUND
By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Ike
Will Recognize Red China
When Time Is Ripe; Anthony
Eden Faces Trouble At Home
Over His Support Of USA In China.

WASHINGTON. — It won't be announced for some time and may even be denied, but the President has just about made up his mind that when the time is ripe he will recognize Red China.

The fact that the Red Chinese have overwhelming control of the mainland, plus the shaky Nationalist leadership of Chiang Kai-Shek, plus the dubious policy of risking a major war for the sake of Formosa
all contributed to the President's thinking.

Secretary of State Dulles has leaned toward this view for some time. Eisenhower himself has come round to it more recently. But he has long been convinced — even before he became President of the United States — that this country could not afford to get bogged down in war with China.

The Eisenhower strategy will be to grant recognition if the Reds cut out their propaganda attacks against the USA, agree to a cease-fire and agree to respect the right of the Nationalists to maintain a separate China on Formosa.

All the above is one reason why Sen. William Knowland of California has been running down to the White House two or three times a week lately. He suspects that this shift in the wind and has been doing his best to stop it.

In doing so, he has one potent,
important ally—Red China itself.
Communist Chinese leaders have become so cocky, so overconfident, so brazen about having the West on the run, that they may thumb their noses at any sort of agreement even if they get recognition in return.

EDEN'S GREAT AMBITION
Foreign Minister Anthony Eden
may have jettisoned his great ambition to succeed Winston Churchill as prime minister of England by his 100 per cent support of the USA
over Formosa.

Immediately after President Resolution giving him a free hand around the Formosan straits, Eden came out with a public statement endorsing Ike. This unprecedented gesture had been arranged in advance with John Foster Dulles to give vigorous Allied support to the President's message.

But after the British began taking a good look at the joint resolution, even Eden's enthusiasm cooled while other British politicians boiled. For the joint resolution would permit the United States to drop the A-bomb on the Chinese mainland without a declaration of war even if China only concentrated troops opposite Formosa.

It was to head off such a policy that Premier Clement Attlee made a special trip to Washington during the Korean war.

As a result, Eden has become a political storm center. Even his friend Winston is growling that the Eisenhower policy imperils the safety of Hong Kong.

So, unless Eisenhower works out his strategy of Red Chinese recognition and a cease-fire, the debonair Anthony, who has been waiting so long and so patiently for Churchill to retire, may be disappointed in achieving his greatest ambition.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE
Just before he left on his Caribbean tour, Vice President Nixon told one of his closest friends that President Eisenhower does not intend to run for a second term.
Nixon said the President will resist any move to draft him on the ground that he is not the indispen-sible man and that a young, vigorous candidate can win for the Republicans. (Nixon considers himself very young and very vigorous.) Sen. Herbert Lehman of New York has sent a bitter letter to Lyndon Johnson of Texas complaining that Johnson violated Lehman's seniority privileges and cheated him out of committee assignments he deserved. Lyndon sent back an apologetic "I did the best I can" reply, which only enraged the New Yorker more. The suave Texan seems to be able to butter up every Democratic senator except the man who's been than anyone in history.

COPPER EXPORTS STOPPED
The Eisenhower administration has decided on what amounts to an embargo of all copper shipments to foreign countries.

This drastic step — though it will be camouflaged under softer language — has been decided upon because of the tremendous amounts of copper being shipped to Soviet Russia. Even American copper producers have been shipping copper to the Russians,
though it's been through third parties.

Shipments of copper out of the United States have been so heavy that in December, 41,000 tons of copper were, in effect, used from the national stockpile to supply the needs of domestic manufacturers. While the copper was not actually taken out of the stockpile, it was diverted from the amount that was supposed to have been put in during December.

The embargo of copper shipments was decided upon by Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks last week. He will simply deny licenses for the export of copper abroad. The announcement, expected momentarily, will not be described as an embargo,
but that's what it will actually be.

Reason for the Russian purchases of copper may well be to build up the Soviet war potential.
Whatever the reason, the Russians have been paying higher than the domestic price here and have been attracting shipments from Chile
and other copper countries.

IOOF Scholarships
Offered Illinois High School Graduates

For the tenth consecutive year
the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Illinois are offering two $400 scholarships to members of the graduating classes of the Illinois public schools.

These scholarships are given as a public service. The awards will be made on the basis of scholastic standing, an original essay on the subject "Youth's Obligation to the Community," participation in school activities, extra-curricular activities and activities for promotion of good citizenship. The contests are open to 1955 graduates from the four-year courses in the senior public high schools with no restrictions as to race, religion or nationality.

Detailed information on rules governing the contests may be obtained from the office of the high school principal.

The contest closes at midnight, April 15, 1955. The decisions of the judges will be final and the awards will be paid to the accredited college or university of the student's choice.

Propose Punishment
For Improper
Parental Supervision

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — Six state representatives Tuesday introduced a bill in the Illinois House which would punish "improper parental supervision."

The proposed law would assess
a fine of $25 to $200 against a parent or guardian for the first offense, up to $200 and six months in jail for the second offense and up to $500 and a year in jail for the third offense.

Improper parental supervision would include allowing children to associate with known thieves, visit houses of ill fame, break the peace, commit lewd or lascivious acts or violate curfews.

To Give Birth To Second Child In Two Months

DELAWARE, Ohio (UP) — Mrs.
Bernard Schnees learned today that her son born Jan. 28 will have a twin about March 22.

Mrs. Schnees' physician, Dr.
James G. Parker, predicted the March 22 date for the birth of the second twin. He said two babies had been expected when the first child was born. The delayed birth of the second twin makes Mrs.
Schnees' case one of the rarest in medical history.

The first of the expected twins,
Douglas Lee Parker, was born almost two months prematurely.
When the second child didn't appear Mrs. Schnees became resigned to her role as a medical rarity.

Dr. Parker said the delayed birth might have been caused by two possibilities. He said one possibility, a "super fecundation," is the simultaneous fertilization of two separate ova by two separate sperm. It is so rare Dr. Parker was inclined to discount it altogether.

The second, and more likely possibility Dr. Parker said, is that Mrs. Schnees has a "bi-cornuate" or two-horned uterus, something like two wombs sharing a common neck, and that separate eggs were fertilized in each section.

The physician said Douglas Lee's arrival did not disturb his twin.

The Schnees already have decided to name the delayed twin Dennis — Lyn if it is a boy and Deborah Lyn if it is a girl.
Mrs. Schnees and her husband Bernard, a partner in a trucking company, have three other children, all born normally. They are Only Car at its Price*... So Smart! So Big! So Powerful!

*You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars!

Whatever you want most in a car—beauty, size or performance—you get it in extra measure in a Pontiac.

For example, take Pontiac's distinctive smartness. Pontiac is the one car that stands apart from all the others.

If it's size and big-car sure-footed-ness you want—Pontiac's your car!
Pontiac's long wheelbase is the plus wheelbase that provides the roominess,
the comfort, the satisfying road-hugging

security that only a big car can supply.

As for performance—once you get behind the wheel you have all the proof you need that Pontiac is way ahead in this department, too. Pontiac's spectacular performance starts with the most modern engine of all—the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8—specifically designed for Pontiac's all-new chassis to give you balanced performance. That means smooth, eager getaway in traffic; power to spare on the open road;

and even more of Pontiac's traditional economy, dependability and long life.

All this adds up to a wonderful car
and—with Pontiac's remarkably low price tag—a very wonderful buy. Come in soon and talk dollars and cents. If you're in the market for any new car, you'll discover you can easily afford all the pride and pleasure of a big,
powerful, luxury-loaded Pontiac.

Senators Debate Removing 'Gag' on Lt. Gov. Chapman

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Republican senators debated today whether to remove a "gag" on Lt. Gov. John William Chapman.
A new rule adopted by the GOP majority this year prohibits the lieutenant governor, from leaving the rostrum to speak on any bill.
Chapman was reported miffed by the rule, apparently adopted because he took the floor in 1953 to speak for a Fair Employment Practices Act.
GOP senators held a one-hour caucus Tuesday to discuss whether to repeal the rule. However, they said no action was taken but the matter will be taken up again later.

A "federal power project reservation" is a reservation of public lands for use in connection with a power development project under the jurisdiction of the federal power commission.

Three Plead Innocent To Gambling Charges at Cairo

CAIRO, Ill. (AP)—Robert R. Brock of the Turf Club, Cairo, and Elmer Oliver Jr., of El Patio Club north of here, pleaded innocent today to charges of operating gaming houses and were released on $500 bond.

They are scheduled to go on trial March 1 along with Rebecca Bearden of Becky's Club, Charming located north of Cairo, who pleaded innocent Tuesday to similar charges and was released on $500 bond.

Officials Believe U. S. is Out in Front in A-Race Despite Boast by Molotov

WASHINGTON (AP)—The belief has long persisted in some Washington quarters that Russia may have beaten this country to a cheap and efficient way to make hydrogen superbombs.

But American weaponers recouped quickly, and the United States — so say its atomic officials — is well out front in the nuclear arms race.

Even so, no responsible government figure doubts that Russia has a stockpile of H-bombs and the means of delivering them.

Nevertheless, Tuesday's declaration by Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov that Russia is the No. 1 H-bomb power was greeted here as a pubanous boast designed to scare the free world at a moment when Soviet stock needed boosting.

The Atomic Energy Commission refused to comment officially on Molotov's boast. But AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss and Commissioner Thomas E. Murray often have proclaimed America's atomic superiority.

Strauss Is Confident

And Strauss is known to believe that the U. S. superbomb stockpile is big enough by comparison with Russia's to offset the USSR's admitted superiority in armed manpower and to constitute the world's best insurance against all-out aggression by the East.

But neither Strauss nor others informed on the subject discount Russia's technical capabilities, and many a U. S. authority has worried that the Reds could some day forge ahead if this country ever slackened its atomic effort.

The world's first full-scale hydrogen explosion, as described by President Eisenhower, was detonated at Eniwetok in the Marshall Islands by the United States on Nov. 1, 1952. It wiped out the test island.

Some nine months later, on Aug. 12, 1953, the second hydrogen explosion in history was set off — by Russia.

First Blast "Dwarfed"

Then on March 1, 1954, at Bikini in the Marshalls the United States began a new series of H-bomb tests with an explosion that dwarfed the curtain-raiser of 1952.

A highly qualified official source told the United Press that the main ingredient of the new superbomb was a material that costs "a matter of dollars a pound" whereas the price mover of the 1952 device was "a substance that costs thousands of dollars an ounce."

This source said of the new material that, "We can assume the Russians know about it."

Nourish Will for World Freedom, Eisenhower Urges

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower urged Tuesday night a stronger campaign to keep the "will for freedom" alive in countries "in the Soviet backyard."

"While we maintain our vigilance at home and abroad, we must intensify the will for freedom in the satellite countries behind the Iron Curtain," the President said. "Without this victory, we can have no other victories."

Mr. Eisenhower spoke over a closed television circuit to 35 meetings throughout the country in a campaign to raise funds for Radio Free Europe.

The President asserted that Radio Free Europe and the "Crusade for Freedom," the private group that sponsors its broadcasts, nourish the will for freedom in satellite countries.

"U. S. diplomatic officials said Molotov's H-bomb rattling may have been the Soviet answer to reported 'major developments' on the U. S. atomic front.

In any event, the possibility that Russia might some day catch up in fact with the United States is always present in the minds of American officials.

HTHS and Carrier Mills High School Girls Named Homemakers of Tomorrow

Mary Simpson

Miss Mary Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Simpson, and a senior at the Harrisburg Township high school, and Lola Lee Davidson, Carrier Mills Community high school senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davidson, have been named Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow in a contest sponsored by General Mills.

They received this honor by having the highest score in a written examination which tested the homemaking knowledge and attitudes of all senior girls taking the test. They will now be entered in competition for selection of the Betty Crocker State Homemaker of Tomorrow, and will receive also the Betty Crocker golden award pin and Betty Crocker Picture Cook Books for herself and school.

Lola Lee Davidson

A scholarship of $1,500 will be awarded to each state winner in the contest and who will also receive a five-day, expense-paid trip with her school advisor to Washington, D. C., colonial Williamsburg, Va., and Philadelphia. In addition, the state winner will receive the golden Betty Crocker jeweled state award pin, and a complete set of the latest edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica will be given to her high school library.

The national winner in this search conducted among 187,000 young women in 8,000 of the nation's public, private, and parochial high schools will be named April 21 at an American Trade fete in Philadelphia. The national winner will then receive an additional $3,500 scholarship, the Betty Crocker diamond-studded gold homemaker's pin—the highest emblem in the United States of its type—plus the opportunity to make an expense-paid tour of the nation. The girl receiving this national honor will be chosen on the basis of the written exam plus personal observation by the distinguished National Advisory Council of educators and leading citizens.

General Mills is the sponsor of this program designed to assist schools in building in young women a deeper appreciation and understanding of the American home and the personal qualities necessary to successful homemaking.

This is Mary's second year for taking Homemaking at HTHS and she is also a member of the FHA. In her other school activities, she has been in the G.A.A. four years and is now president, has been in the band four years, and is also a Thespians.

Lola, who is active in Senior class affairs at the CMCHS and a member of the annual staff, was awarded her Betty Crocker pin at a special assembly Tuesday afternoon.

Boy, 13, is Held For Shooting Tenant Farmer

PARIS, Ill. — A 13-year-old boy was held today for questioning in the shooting of a tenant farmer who ordered him and three other teenagers off his property.

The farmer, 35-year-old Bennie Duzan, was reported in critical condition with wounds in the abdomen and groin at Paris hospital.

The shooting occurred Tuesday when Duzan told Ronnie Ward and three 15-year-old companions, all wards of the Edgar County Children's Home, to leave a wooded area on his farm.

Young Ward's companions nam-

Foreclose on Farm of Mother Of Tax Juggler

DANVILLE, Ill. — The mother of absconding tax juggler Spencer D. Lorton had less than three weeks today to scrape up enough money to pay his $10,000 fine or see her farm go on the auction block.

In addition, Mrs. Almeda Lorton must find the money to pay interest on the fine, court costs, and a $1,600 fee to defense attorneys.

Still to be paid are $40,000 in judgment notes owned by two bondsmen who put up the money to get Lorton out on bail and then tried desperately to get him back. Federal Judge Casper Platt Tuesday fixed a deadline of 20 days as he regrettably foreclosed the mortgage on Mrs. Lorton's farm.

The move was necessary to impose at least part of Lorton's sentence on charges of making fraudulent income tax returns for 10 persons who sought his services as an accountant.

Lorton, a Springfield, Ill. resident, slipped off to Canada rather than serve his three year sentence.

The FBI has since issued a warning that Lorton may have returned to Illinois and should be considered "armed and dangerous."

Meanwhile, Mrs. Lorton's attorney said her farm properties have an estimated value of $150,000 and that she could probably borrow enough money to save them from the auction block.

Plan to Trade Food Surplus for Stockpile Items

WASHINGTON — The Agriculture Department hopes to dispose of a large share of American wheat, corn and dairy surpluses by setting up, for the first time in history, its own stockpile of strategic materials.

Under a new plan, announced late Tuesday, the USDA will trade the surplus commodities for a list of 30 materials which will be stored by the Commodity Credit Corporation.

In the past the USDA has traded surplus foods for foreign-produced stockpiling items only if another U. S. government agency contracted to buy the so-called critical goods.

The materials the CCC is authorized to stockpile include bauxite, cobalt, iodine, lead, tin, zinc, magnesium, mercury, nickel, opium, platinum and tantalite.

Benson said wheat and corn traded for these materials would be exported only to "selected countries."

The countries on the selected list for wheat-bartering are Belgium, Brazil, Chile, Egypt, Germany, India, Italy, Peru, Turkey, the United Kingdom, Yugoslavia and Mexico.

The department will try to trade corn for stockpiling items in Austria, Belgium, Germany, India, Ireland, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, the United Kingdom and Yugoslavia.

The Butantan Institute near Sao Paulo, South America, is a snake farm where snake bite serum is produced.

ed him as the one who shot Duzan.

The farmer said he grabbed a 22 caliber rifle from the boy, got into a truck and drove to a nearby implement firm. He fell thru the door and was rushed to the hospital.

The Ward boy was picked up at his parents' apartment. He was held in the Edgar county jail.

SIU Scientist Addresses Methodist Men

Speaking on the subject, "Science and Religion," Dr. Kenneth Van Lenter, professor of chemistry at S. I. U., gave a highly interesting talk to the Methodist Men's organization last night at the Little Theatre in the Junior high school building.

More than sixty men were in attendance to hear the scientist. Dr. Van Lenter was introduced by Art Bottomley, chairman of the program committee.

The speaker told his listeners that, contrary to belief oft expressed from pulpit, press and elsewhere, scientists were, by the very nature of their studies, believers in God.

His speech, in general, followed this line of thought, giving specific reasons why the scientist is brought closer to the realization of the Devine Being than men of other vocations and professions.

Following his talk, Dr. Van Lenter answered numerous questions asked by the men, most of the queries concerning atom and hydrogen with relation to our present day world.

Prior to the address, the Rev.

Saban Named Grid Coach at Northwestern

CHICAGO (AP) — Northwestern's 1956 football team will go back to the straight T formation with variations, new Coach Lou Saban announced today, but he didn't know what personnel would make the attack work.

"That's the only plan I've got so far," he said. "Just use the straight T. But what we'll do with personnel, I don't know."

Saban, a 33-year-old former Indiana and Cleveland Browns star who joined the Northwestern staff a year ago as the defensive backfield coach, was named Monday on a one-year "interim" contract to succeed Bob Voigts as the head mentor of the Wildcats.

"I'm very happy to have the job," he said, "and right now I'm going to start out to do the best I can with it."

Saban, a native of suburban La Grange, played in the Indiana back field from 1940 through 1942 before he served three and a half years in the Army. Later he played with the Cleveland Browns for four years before he became coach at Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland for three seasons. He was an assistant coach at the University of Washington for one year before he came to Northwestern.

Maglie, Hank Sauer, Raschi Sign Contracts

By United Press
Sal Maglie, a perennial late starter when it comes to spring training, was the only key member of the New York Giants unsigned today as pitchers Hoyt Wilhelm and Ramon Montant joined the world champions' contented list.

The only other unsigned Giants are utility infielder Foster Castleman and rookie Bob Lennon.

Wilhelm posted a 12-4 record and a 2.11 earned run average last season. He is believed to have come to terms for about $17,000.

Montant, who had an 11-7 record with Minneapolis, probably signed for $6,000.

The Chicago Cubs announced the signing of slugger Hank Sauer and bonus pitcher Clyde Donald Kiser of Enyng, Okla. Sauer hit 41 homers and drove in 103 runs last season.

His pact is estimated at about $35,000. Right-hander Dave Cole also came to terms with the Cubs.

Outfielder Andy Pafko and three young players signed with the Milwaukee Braves and veteran pitcher Vic Raschi came to terms with the St. Louis Cards.

Pafko, who hit .286 in 136 games last season, is believed to have accepted a cut to $18,000. The others signed by the Braves are 22-year-old catcher Don Leppert, and pitchers Roberto Vargas and Warren McLea.

Raschi, whose purchase by the Cardinals from the New York Yankees last spring was one of the most surprising deals of the year, posted an 8-9 mark in 1954.

Outfielder Tom Saffell, Pacific Coast League stolen base leader in 1954, signed with the Pittsburgh Pirates and pitcher Ray Moore, 8-7 with St. Paul in the American Association last season, signed with the Baltimore Orioles.
